EMS Channel Coordination Form

The eFTL application developer, the eFTL administrator and the EMS administrator can use this form to coordinate the interface between the eFTL and EMS communication infrastructures. Use one form for each EMS channel.

Channel Name

Names of Related EMS Applications

EMS Server URL: Supply the locations where the eFTL service can connect to the EMS server (primary and backup).

Connection Credentials: Supply a location where the eFTL administrator can find user name and password credentials to connect to the EMS server.

Topic and Queue Names: List the topic and queue names the EMS server must allow eFTL applications to use.

Durable Names: List the durable names that the EMS server must allow eFTL applications to use.

Delivery Mode: Must the EMS server persist messages that eFTL applications publish on this channel?
Yes   No

Authorization Groups: Copy the names of authorization groups from the application coordination forms of the applications that use this channel.

Publish Group:

Subscribe Group: